TAKING THE GOOD NEWS TO THE NATIONS

SUNDAY 6 SEPTEMBER, 2026

RAISING KINGDOM LEADERS

REACHING NATIONS

CHANGING LIVES

Editorial Note

Welcome to this edition of the Kingdom Testament Chronicle, a carefully curated weekly record of the Word across Christian traditions, featuring messages and devotional reflections documented on Sunday, 6 September 2026. This publication presents the central biblical truths, practical lessons and enduring spiritual insights from twelve Christian traditions in concise and engaging summaries, making them valuable resources for personal devotion, Christian leadership development and group Bible study.

Though drawn from different pulpits and traditions, the messages point believers toward one unchanging reality: a fruitful Christian life is built on faith in Jesus Christ, obedience to God's Word, prayer, wisdom, holiness, love and faithful service. From seeking divine wisdom and embracing God's counsel to standing firm in difficult battles, receiving Christ's healing, practising fraternal love and celebrating the restoring power of grace, these reflections call believers to deeper spiritual maturity and Christ-centred living.

This edition also upholds the importance of truth and responsible Christian documentation. Where official sources did not provide sufficient information to verify a sermon title, preacher, Scripture or message substance, no assumptions have been made. This commitment to accuracy strengthens the credibility of the Church's witness and honours the truth we proclaim.

As you prayerfully read, may the Holy Spirit illuminate God's Word, strengthen your faith and inspire you to live a life that glorifies Christ.

God bless you as you read in the mighty name of Jesus Christ.
Jesus is Lord.

LIVING FAITH CHURCH WORLDWIDE

Winners' Chapel International

Published title: COVENANT DAY OF BUSINESS BREAKTHROUGH SERVICE | 6, SEPTEMBER 2026 | FAITH TABERNACLE OTA
Message form: Covenant Day message in the Sunday teaching series "What Wisdom Is This?"
Preacher and office: Bishop David O. Oyedepo — Founder and Presiding Bishop, Living Faith Church Worldwide
Essential scriptures: Proverbs 8:12; Matthew 13:54; 2 Chronicles 26:5; Isaiah 60:1–22; John 15:15; Hebrews 11:33–34

MESSAGE

During the Covenant Day of Business Breakthrough, Bishop David O. Oyedepo opened September's prophetic focus, "Creative Wisdom Is My Heritage" (Proverbs 8:12), and the series "What Wisdom Is This?" (Matthew 13:54). He taught that wisdom from above is creative and productive, turning scriptural instruction into mighty works rather than mere human cleverness.

KEY POINTS

- Seeking God keeps wisdom and breakthrough alive (2 Chronicles 26:5).
- Revelation must be received and applied in faith; divine light changes the believer's path (Isaiah 60:1–22; Hebrews 11:33–34).
- Love for God and His kingdom is the master key to unending breakthrough.
- Covenant wisdom operates through love, revelation, application, faith, integrity and thanksgiving, joining spiritual insight to upright business conduct.

SPIRITUAL CHARGE

Put God and His kingdom first. Seek light from Scripture, act promptly on what He reveals, keep your dealings clean, and return thanks. Let love for God govern every idea, decision and ambition so your breakthrough becomes fruitful service.

THE REDEEMED CHRISTIAN CHURCH OF GOD

RCCG

Published title: Wonderful Counsellor
Message form: Sermon within "RCCG SEPTEMBER 6th 2026 | THANKSGIVING SERVICE"
Preacher and office: Pastor Enoch Adejare Adeboye — General Overseer, RCCG Worldwide
Essential scriptures: Isaiah 9:6; Luke 1:26–38; Matthew 14:22–33; John 11:1–44; Matthew 8:1–4; Mark 5:2–20; Proverbs 15:22; 1 John 2:1; 1 Thessalonians 5:16–18

MESSAGE

From Isaiah 9:6, Pastor E. A. Adeboye proclaimed Jesus Christ as the "Wonderful Counsellor". Christ is wonderful in His birth, works, death and resurrection. He can break protocol, overturn impossible verdicts and make a person a wonder. As Counsellor, His wisdom surpasses consultation; He defeats traps, directs the obedient and stands as the believer's Advocate.

KEY POINTS

- His miraculous birth reveals God's power beyond natural limits (Luke 1:26–38).
- His authority rules storms, sickness and death (Matthew 14:22–33; John 11:1–44; Matthew 8:1–4; Mark 5:2–20).
- Wise counsel brings safety, and Christ remains our Advocate before the Father (Proverbs 15:22; 1 John 2:1).
- God's practical counsel is to rejoice always, pray without ceasing and give thanks in everything (1 Thessalonians 5:16–18).

SPIRITUAL CHARGE

Submit decisions and impossibilities to Jesus, obey His counsel, and practise joy, prayer and thanksgiving. Trust the Wonderful Counsellor to frustrate every trap, redirect your steps and display His wonder through your life.

DEEPER CHRISTIAN LIFE MINISTRY

Deeper Life Bible Church

Published title: Believing and Obeying the Truth in Christ || Worship Service || September 6, 2026
Message form: Sunday worship sermon
Preacher and office: Pastor William Folorunso Kumuyi — General Superintendent
Essential scriptures: Galatians 1:15–24; 3:13–14; chapters 3–4; 1 Timothy 2:7; Ephesians 4:21–24; 1 Thessalonians 2:13

...achieving heaven's goal

MESSAGE

Pastor W. F. Kumuyi taught that hearing Christ's truth must lead to assimilation, faith, prayer and obedience. From Galatians 3–4, he proclaimed that Christ redeemed believers from the law's curse so Abraham's blessing and the promised Spirit might be received through faith.

KEY POINTS

- Faithful heralds emerge from genuine conversion and bear truthful witness, not merely denominational identity (Galatians 1:15–24; 1 Timothy 2:7).
- Hard-hearted resistance is folly: truth heard without belief and obedience cannot produce God's intended life.
- In Christ, believers receive freedom from the curse, Abraham's blessing and the Spirit's enabling presence (Galatians 3:13–14).
- Heavenly inheritance is expressed through inward renewal and true holiness, not outward religious display (Ephesians 4:21–24; 1 Thessalonians 2:13).

SPIRITUAL CHARGE

Receive God's whole counsel with a teachable heart. Believe the gospel, pray its promises, deny yourself, bear the cross and obey Christ, letting truth reshape character and witness.

Published title: PRAYING AGAINST HARD BATTLES - MFM SUNDAY WORSHIP SERVICE 06-09-2026 DR D. K. OLUKOYA
Message form: Sunday worship sermon
Preacher and office: Dr Daniel Kolawole Olukoya — General Overseer, MFM Worldwide
Essential scriptures: Psalm 18:17; 1 Samuel 17; Joshua 6; Genesis 32:24–30; 1 Samuel 1; Mark 5:25–34; Daniel 10:12–13

MESSAGE

Psalm 18:17 presents a believer under pressure from an enemy stronger than human ability, yet rescued by the Lord. The message calls worshippers to recognise hard battles without surrendering to fear. Victory begins with honest dependence on God, persistent prayer and confidence in His delivering power. Spiritual conflict may feel prolonged or overwhelming, but it does not place the faithful beyond divine help.

KEY POINTS

- Hard battles expose the limits of natural strength and the need for God's intervention.
- The believer must resist fear, pray deliberately and refuse agreement with defeat.
- Psalm 18:17 anchors hope in the Lord who rescues from enemies too strong for us.
- Endurance in prayer keeps faith active while deliverance is sought.

SPIRITUAL CHARGE

Confront every hard battle on your knees. Ask the Lord to arise as your Deliverer, renounce fear, and stand firmly on His word. Pray with holy persistence, trusting that no adversary is stronger than the God who saves.

CHEER UP—VICTORY IS CERTAIN
President, LoveWorld Incorporated: Reverend (Dr) Chris Oyakhilome

At August's close, the Month of Recovery, believers were charged to cheer up because Christ's victory - not circumstances - is the foundation of confidence. From John 16:33 and Romans 4:18, faith looks beyond contradictions, embraces God's Word and refuses discouragement. Recovery demands more than wishing: Christians must pray, rejoice, obey the Word, depend on the Holy Spirit and act in faith, assured that God causes them to triumph in Christ. The service also celebrated thirty years of Pastor Chris's television ministry, through which the Gospel has crossed borders and transformed lives.

Key Points

- Victory is secured through Jesus Christ; believers confront adversity from a position of triumph.
- Faith follows Abraham: hope against hope, allowing Scripture - not circumstances - to govern expectation.
- Joy is spiritual strength; thanksgiving and rejoicing keep the heart resistant to fear.
- Recovery embraces renewed strength, purpose, opportunity and fruitfulness through persistence in the Word.
- Media is a consecrated instrument for taking God's divine presence to the nations.

DUNAMIS INTERNATIONAL GOSPEL CENTRE
The Glory Dome, Abuja

Published title: Wisdom for the Blessing – Part Two
Message form: Main sermon within "SEPTEMBER 2026 BLESSING SUNDAY SERVICE || 06-09-2026"
Preacher and office: Dr Paul Enenche — Founder and Senior Pastor, Dunamis International Gospel Centre
Essential scriptures: Proverbs 3:13–18; 1 Kings 5:4; 10:23–25; Genesis 12:2–3; Psalm 112

MESSAGE

Dr Paul Enenche taught that divine wisdom is a covenant pathway into the blessing. From Proverbs 3:13–18, he showed that wisdom carries enduring profit: length of days, riches, honour, pleasantness and peace. Blessing is not sustained by activity alone; Scripture-governed decisions and divine direction position believers to receive, preserve and purposefully deploy what God supplies.

KEY POINTS

- Seek wisdom as a primary spiritual asset, not an optional aid after plans have failed.
- Solomon's wisdom attracted riches, honour, gifts and rest on every side (1 Kings 5:4; 10:23–25).
- Kingdom vision makes the blessed believer a distributor, not a reservoir; resources should serve God's work, the needy and the wider generation (Genesis 12:2–3; Psalm 112).
- Diligence, principled work and faithful present stewardship prepare a person for greater trust.

SPIRITUAL CHARGE

Choose the way of wisdom. Receive God's counsel, obey it promptly, work diligently and let every increase become enduring, peaceful and purposeful blessing to others.

SALVATION MINISTRIES
Home of Success

Published title: Reigning with Wisdom
Message form: Sunday service sermon
Preacher and office: Pastor David Ibiyeomie — Presiding Pastor, Salvation Ministries
Essential scriptures: Proverbs 4:7–8; Psalm 111:10; Genesis 22:16–18; Proverbs 8:15–18; Proverbs 22:4; Psalm 25:14; Hebrews 1:9

MESSAGE
Pastor David Ibiyeomie taught that wisdom is more than information or intelligence: it is the correct application of Scripture. Believers reign when God's Word governs their choices. The foundation of this wisdom is the fear of the Lord—not terror, but reverence expressed through willing, delighted obedience. Abraham, Joseph, Job, Daniel and the three Hebrew men show how refusal to compromise positions a life for divine direction and blessing.

KEY POINTS
- Pursue wisdom as the principal thing; understanding lifts and honours those who embrace it.
- Fear God enough to obey promptly, even when obedience demands courage or sacrifice.
- Expect God-centred wisdom to produce insight, confidence, preservation, longevity, prosperity and promotion.
- Steward every benefit beyond yourself, remembering Abraham's obedience and its generational reach.

SPIRITUAL CHARGE
Choose reverent obedience today. Apply Scripture to your decisions, reject compromise and let righteousness govern your conduct. Ask God for wisdom, follow His counsel with joy, and use every increase to advance His purpose and bless generations.

LET LOVE BE GENUINE
LAWMNA Territorial Chairman: Pastor Moses Oluwole Ogunibe

Christian love must be genuine and practical. Romans 12:9 rejects religious pretence and calls believers to abhor evil while cleaving to what is good. Jesus Christ is the perfect pattern, commanding His disciples to love one another so the world recognises them as His own. Such love moves beyond words into kindness, prayer, listening, encouragement and support. It forgives offences without endorsing sin, refuses to keep a ledger of wrongs and overcomes bitterness through grace. Because people differ in temperament and weakness, genuine love requires patience, humility and disciplined speech. Spiritual gifts and service lose value when love is absent; but Spirit-enabled love builds unity in homes, churches and communities and makes the believer a living testimony of Christ.

Key Points

- Love sincerely, without hypocrisy.
- Forgive and release offences.
- Practise patience, kindness and humility.
- Let truth govern expressions of love.
- Make Christ visible through practical care.

DAYSTAR CHRISTIAN CENTRE

Lagos, Nigeria

Published title: You Are Healed
Message form: Second-service sermon
Preacher and office: Pastor Solomon Kpandei — Pastor, Daystar Christian Centre
Essential scriptures: 1 Peter 2:24 (NLT); Genesis 30:31–31:13; Romans 5:8; John 15:13; Isaiah 53:4–5; Exodus 23:25; Jeremiah 30:17

MESSAGE

Healing stands within Christ's saving work. Pastor Solomon Kpandei taught from 1 Peter 2:24 that Jesus bore sin and opened the way to wholeness. As Jacob acted on God-given insight in Genesis 30–31, believers are called to let Scripture shape imagination, speech and expectation. Romans 5:8 and John 15:13 locate every promise in God's self-giving love, while Isaiah 53:4–5 declares the suffering Servant who carried our griefs and wounds.

KEY POINTS

- Christ's cross is the foundation for forgiveness, healing and restored life.
- Meditation renews the mind until God's Word becomes the believer's settled conviction.
- Faith speaks in agreement with Scripture, refusing fear without denying wise care.
- God's covenant care calls believers to worship, obedience and grateful dependence.

SPIRITUAL CHARGE

Serve the Lord, hold fast to His promise in Exodus 23:25 and Jeremiah 30:17, and confess Christ's finished work with humility. Pray persistently, receive appropriate care, and encourage the sick with compassion, never blame.

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH

The Holy See

Published title: Angelus, 6 September 2026
Message form: Official papal Sunday address; not a Mass homily or a Church-wide Nigerian sermon
Speaker and office: His Holiness Pope Leo XIV — Supreme Pontiff
Essential scriptures: Romans 13:8–10; Matthew 18:15–20

MESSAGE

Pope Leo XIV teaches that Christian life is governed by the enduring debt of mutual love. Far from enslaving, this debt makes those who receive care freer and more responsible. In Matthew's Gospel, Christ shows communities how to turn conflict into growth through charitable correction and how concord in prayer deepens communion.

KEY POINTS

- Paul gathers the commandments into love of neighbour, the debt Christians never finish paying.
- Fraternal correction should be truthful, discreet and gradual, seeking restoration rather than gossip or paralysis.
- Agreement before God joins shared hopes, sorrows and petitions, allowing prayer to form unity.
- Grace overcomes suspicion and estrangement, enabling believers to meet, forgive and listen as brothers and sisters.

SPIRITUAL CHARGE

Practise the joyful debt of fraternal love this week. Address wrongs face to face with charity, refuse harmful speech, pray in agreement with others, and ask the Blessed Virgin Mary to teach the Church generous accompaniment. Let every encounter become a school of forgiveness, responsibility and peace.

CHURCH OF NIGERIA
Anglican Communion

Published title: THE UNLIMITED GRACE
Message form: Official Daily Fountain devotional; not a parish Sunday sermon
Contributor and office: The Rt Revd Dr Enoch Atuboyedia — Bishop of the Diocese of Okrika
Essential scriptures: Luke 15:11–32; Luke 15:7

MESSAGE

The parable of the lost son proclaims the boundlessness of divine grace. The younger son squanders his inheritance, yet repentance brings him to a father who runs to receive and restore him. His welcome reveals that no failure places a sinner beyond God's mercy. The elder son's resentment also warns believers not to begrudge grace to those whom God restores. Grace is undeserved, but it is never permission to remain in sin; it calls the forgiven into repentance, restored fellowship and a generous life that mirrors the Father's heart.

KEY POINTS

- God's grace reaches the repentant, however far they have wandered.
- Restoration is the Father's gift, not a reward earned by merit.
- Those already in the household must rejoice when the lost return.
- Grace received becomes grace extended through forgiveness, welcome and compassion.

SPIRITUAL CHARGE

Come home without despair. Receive the Father's mercy in Christ, forsake sin, and let your words, relationships and service make that same restoring grace visible to others today.

TAKE UP YOUR CROSS AND FOLLOW CHRIST

Preacher: The Most Reverend Olumuyiwa Odejayi

Matthew 16:21-28 reveals that discipleship follows the crucified and risen Lord. Jesus calls believers to deny self, take up the cross and follow Him - not occasionally, but daily. Self-denial is not self-contempt; it is the surrender of selfish desire so that God's will governs thought, choice and conduct. The cross represents costly fidelity when obedience brings sacrifice, misunderstanding or hardship. Peter's protest warns against judging God's purpose by human expectations: disciples must ask not merely, 'What do I want?' but, 'What does God require?' Grace forms a life of prayer, Scripture, worship, holiness and humble service.

Key Points

- Christ, not comfort or worldly success, is the centre of discipleship.
- Faith must mature into obedience, sacrifice and perseverance.
- God's plan remains trustworthy even when it is difficult to understand.
- Disciples serve others through compassion, encouragement, evangelism and practical help.
- Daily surrender renews the mind, shapes Christlike character and reveals life's eternal meaning.

TESTIMONIES

Jericho's Walls Fell

Jericho's formidable walls barred Israel's entrance into promise, but God supplied a strategy that left no room for human pride. For six days they marched once around the city; on the seventh, they circled it seven times. Their step of faith and obedience was to follow every divine instruction, remain silent until the appointed moment, and then shout before the walls moved. At the trumpet blast, the fortifications collapsed, proving God's word stronger than entrenched opposition. This testimony calls us to honour His wisdom beyond our understanding. Place every impossible barrier before the Lord, trust Him completely, obey His voice, and let His power lead you into freedom and purpose.

Bible Verses: Joshua 6:16, 20

Water Transformed into Wine

When wine failed at a wedding in Cana, scarcity threatened a family's celebration with public shame. Jesus instructed the servants to fill six stone vessels with water, then draw for the master of the feast; the water became excellent wine. Their step of faith and obedience was to fill the jars to the brim and carry the drawn water without knowing what Christ would do. Jesus revealed His glory, turning emptiness into abundance and embarrassment into joy. This testimony celebrates God, who transforms what we surrender. Bring every unfinished place to God; trust His wisdom, obey His word fully, and receive with gratitude the newness only His grace can create.

Bible Verses: John 2:5–11

ABOUT THE PUBLICATION

Kingdom Testament Chronicle is the flagship publication of Covenant Leadership Ministry International (CLMI), a non-denominational ministry committed to reconciling people to God, unveiling His Kingdom purpose, nurturing spiritual maturity and equipping believers to lead by the timeless principles of Scripture.

This publication is not for sale and has no commercial or business purpose. It exists solely to circulate the undiluted Word of God as preached by anointed ministers across Nigeria, strengthen the Body of Christ and take the Gospel of salvation to those who are yet to receive Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour.

More than a magazine, Kingdom Testament Chronicle is a vessel of inspiration, transformation and Kingdom advancement. It deepens understanding of God's Word, illuminates His divine agenda for this generation and demonstrates how biblical truths apply to leadership, service, family, ministry, enterprise and everyday life.

Every edition presents spiritually enriching teachings, inspiring testimonies, leadership perspectives, faith-building articles, ministry reports and practical resources that challenge believers to grow in grace and fulfil their divine callings. It seeks to raise Kingdom-minded leaders whose character reflects Christ and whose influence advances God's purposes.

As an extension of CLMI's vision, the Chronicle encourages believers to remain devoted to their local churches, recognising that the strength of Christ's Body is sustained through faithful discipleship, sacrificial service and unwavering commitment to God's Kingdom.

Whether you are a pastor, church worker, professional, student, entrepreneur, new convert or believer seeking deeper fellowship with God, Kingdom Testament Chronicle is your companion for spiritual growth, purposeful leadership and eternal impact.

Welcome to a publication where faith inspires obedience, leadership reflects Christ and every page points the reader towards salvation, service and eternity.
