CHANGING LIVES

Editorial Note

Welcome to this edition of the Kingdom Testament Chronicle, a carefully curated collection of inspiring messages delivered across leading Pentecostal and historic Christian traditions in Nigeria on Sunday, 18 October 2026. This publication presents the central biblical truths, practical lessons and enduring spiritual insights from eleven impactful sermons in concise and engaging summaries, making them valuable resources for personal devotion, Christian leadership development and group Bible study.

Though delivered from different pulpits and traditions, every message proclaims one unchanging reality: believers are called to honour God, obey His Word and walk faithfully with Jesus Christ, empowered by the Holy Spirit and guided by prayer. From embracing true holiness and loving neighbours impartially to walking in divine light, exercising faith, pursuing persistent prayer, fulfilling civic responsibilities and trusting Christ as the Resurrection and Life, these sermons call believers to deeper spiritual maturity, diligence, unity, compassion and purposeful Christian living.

As you prayerfully reflect on each message, may the Holy Spirit illuminate the Scriptures, strengthen your faith, renew your commitment to Christ and inspire you to apply God's Word in every area of life. May these teachings help you grow in wisdom, fulfil your divine purpose, overcome life's challenges and become a faithful witness of God's grace to others.

If you receive Jesus Christ and are born again through this publication, we encourage you to fellowship with a Bible-believing church and seek pastoral guidance for continued spiritual growth. You can also contact us directly for prayers.

God bless you as you read, in the mighty name of Jesus Christ.

Jesus is Lord.

LIVING FAITH CHURCH WORLDWIDE (WINNERS' CHAPEL)

THE POWER OF HONOUR

Bishop David Olaniyi Oyedepo | Presiding Bishop

Scripture: 1 Samuel 2:30; Proverbs 3:9–10; Malachi 1:6; John 5:23; 1 Corinthians 4:2; Romans 12:10; Colossians 3:23–24; James 5:14–15

At the Showers of Blessing and Monthly Anointing Service, the message presented honour as heartfelt reverence that gives God first place in everyday life. God honours those who honour Him with sincerity.

- Heart and obedience. Honour God through sincere worship, submission to Scripture and obedience that rejects pride, dishonesty and injustice. Love for Him must shape private conduct.
- Resources and stewardship. Acknowledge God through willing generosity, firstfruits and faithful management of responsibilities. Support family, Kingdom service and the needy with gratitude and integrity.
- Relationships and character. Respect others, keep promises, work diligently and serve humbly. Honour remains accountable to truth and never requires participation in wrongdoing.
- Faith through trials. Continue in thanksgiving, prayer and wise decisions during hardship. Seek God's Kingdom and righteousness above material advantage.
- Anointing and renewal. The anointing segment centred on consecration, spiritual strength, protection and renewal, alongside faith and obedience.

Prayer: Father, establish honour, humility and faithfulness in our hearts, homes and service.

THE REDEEMED CHRISTIAN CHURCH OF GOD

TRUE HOLINESS IS OBEDIENCE

Pastor Enoch Adejare Adeboye | General Overseer

Scripture: 1 Peter 1:15–16; 1 Kings 17:1–10; Psalm 37:4; John 14:15; James 1:22

Holiness becomes visible when believers obey God sincerely. The message called Christians to examine their motives and let Scripture govern their conduct.

- Holy living. God's holiness calls His children to purity, honesty, humility, kindness and forgiveness. Religious appearance cannot substitute for a heart committed to pleasing Him.
- Practical obedience. Be doers of the Word: forgive offences, speak truth and help others. Every instruction heard must find expression in decisions and relationships.
- Elijah's example. Elijah obeyed God's direction to Cherith and later Zarephath. His journey illustrates courage, patience and readiness to follow divine guidance through changing circumstances.
- Love and perseverance. Keeping Christ's commandments expresses love for Him. Sustain prayer, worship, Bible study and self examination; test decisions by Scripture and seek sound spiritual counsel. Difficulties call for continued faithfulness and dependence on God's wisdom.

Prayer: Father, cleanse our hearts, strengthen obedience, and bless our families, work, church and nation with righteousness and peace.

ROYAL LAW — LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOUR AS YOURSELF

Pastor William Folorunso Kumuyi | General Superintendent

Scripture: James 2:8–13; Leviticus 19:18; Matthew 22:37–40; John 13:34–35; Romans 13:8–10

The Royal Law makes neighbourly love a test of Christian obedience. A holy life must reveal compassion, fairness and mercy in everyday relationships.

- Love impartially. Give others the consideration you desire for yourself. Extend kindness beyond family, friends and fellow believers to strangers and those unable to repay you.
- Reject favouritism. James condemns partiality. Wealth, influence, appearance or background must never determine who receives dignity, justice or a welcome within the Church.
- Practise Christ's love. Love for God must shape treatment of people. Forgive offences, assist the needy, encourage the discouraged and speak truth with patience, including when correction is necessary.
- Fulfil God's law. Love does no harm. Reject exploitation, gossip, dishonesty, oppression and cruelty; practise integrity in business, leadership, family and community. Christ identifies His disciples by their love for one another.

Prayer: Lord, remove prejudice and bitterness; make our homes, church and nation faithful, compassionate witnesses of Your love.

- Follow Jesus. Christ, the Light of the world, calls His followers into truth, compassion, humility and forgiveness. Let His character become evident in your relationships.

TESTIMONIES

The Jordan Stood Still
At flood season, the Jordan surged between Israel and God's promised land. The priests carried the ark toward the river while the nation watched, and the waters had not yet moved. Their step of faith and obedience was placing their feet in the overflowing current at God's command. Immediately, the river stopped upstream, the priests stood firm on dry ground, and an entire people crossed safely. Twelve stones were raised so future generations would remember the Lord's mighty hand. God did not merely remove an obstacle; He taught His people that His presence goes before them. When promise and impossibility meet, trust God enough to step forward at His word.

Bible Verses: Joshua 3:13–17; Joshua 4:23–24

The Man Set Free from Legion
Among the tombs lived a man whom chains could not restrain and society could not restore. Tormented by a legion of demons, he met Jesus, whose single command shattered the spiritual captivity that had ruled his life. His step of faith and obedience came after deliverance: he sat clothed and clear-minded at Christ's feet, then obeyed the instruction to return home and tell what God had done. The former outcast became a witness throughout the region, proclaiming the Lord's compassion. No bondage is too deep and no life too broken for Jesus. Trust God's sovereign mercy; He can restore identity, return peace, and turn yesterday's captivity into tomorrow's testimony.

Bible Verses: Mark 5:1–20; Luke 8:38–39
