TAKING THE GOOD NEWS TO THE NATIONS

SUNDAY 4 OCTOBER, 2026

RAISING KINGDOM LEADERS

REACHING NATIONS

CHANGING LIVES

Editorial Note

Welcome to this edition of the Sunday Sermon Digest, a carefully curated collection of inspiring messages delivered across leading Pentecostal and historic Christian traditions in Nigeria on Sunday, 4 October 2026. This publication presents the central biblical truths, practical lessons and enduring spiritual insights from eleven impactful sermons in concise and engaging summaries, making them valuable resources for personal devotion, Christian leadership development and group Bible study.

Though delivered from different pulpits and traditions, these messages point believers to one unchanging truth: genuine Christian living requires faith in God, obedience to His Word, dependence on the Holy Spirit and a life continually transformed by Christ. From creative wisdom and faithful stewardship to sanctification, persistent prayer, spiritual growth, thanksgiving, responsibility, repentance, worship and doing the will of God, these sermons challenge believers to deepen their relationship with Christ and demonstrate their faith through righteous character, service and purposeful living.

As you prayerfully reflect on each message, may the Holy Spirit illuminate the Scriptures, strengthen your faith, deepen your love for God and empower you to live out His Word. May these teachings encourage you to remain steadfast in difficult seasons, grow in spiritual maturity, embrace responsibility, forgive others, serve faithfully and use every blessing and ability entrusted to you for the glory of God and the blessing of others.

If you receive Jesus Christ and get born again through this publication, we encourage you to fellowship with a Bible-believing church and seek pastoral guidance for continued spiritual growth. You can also contact us directly for prayers.

God bless you as you read in the mighty name of Jesus Christ.

Jesus is Lord.

Pastor Folorunso S. Aluko

LIVING FAITH CHURCH WORLDWIDE (WINNERS' CHAPEL)

SHOWERS OF BLESSING

Preacher: Bishop David Olaniyi Oyedepo
Key Scripture: Ezekiel 34:26; Hebrews 11:6; Philippians 4:6; Psalm 119:105; Deuteronomy 28:1–12; Malachi 3:10; 2 Corinthians 9:8

GOD, THE WORD AND FAITH

Every enduring blessing has its source in God and includes peace, wisdom, protection, provision and spiritual growth, not possessions alone. Scripture is the believer's lamp: receiving its promises means studying, believing and obeying them. Faith trusts God's character and power even when the path or timing is unclear.

OBEDIENCE, PRAYER AND THANKSGIVING

Obedience gives practical expression to faith in family, work, relationships and service. Prayer keeps fellowship with God active in every season, bringing requests with thanksgiving rather than anxiety. Gratitude remembers God's past faithfulness and sustains hope while answers are awaited.

FRUITFULNESS IN EVERY SEASON

Hardship does not prove abandonment; believers are urged to keep praying, obeying and seeking divine direction. God's blessing should shape Christlike character—integrity, patience, compassion and forgiveness—and equip Christians to serve others. Spiritual maturity is itself a blessing: use God-given gifts and resources responsibly, becoming a channel of goodness to family, church and community.

MESSAGE

THE REDEEMED CHRISTIAN CHURCH OF GOD (RCCG)

THANKSGIVING.
Preacher: Pastor Enoch Adejare Adeboye
Key Scripture: Psalm 100:1–5; Psalm 103:1–5; 1 Thessalonians 5:16–18; Psalm 107:1; Luke 17:11–19

GRATITUDE THAT REMEMBERS

Thanksgiving responds to God's goodness through praise, prayer, worship and faithful living. Believers remember mercy, salvation, preservation, provision and answered prayer rather than allowing present needs to erase past faithfulness. Psalm 103 turns remembrance into worship: the soul blesses God and refuses to forget His benefits.

THE LEPERS' LESSON

In Luke 17, ten were healed, but one returned to give thanks. His return shows that gratitude recognises the Giver, not merely the gift. Thanksgiving honours God, deepens faith and becomes testimony that directs others toward Him. It should lead to obedience and renewed commitment, not end with words or a moment of celebration.

A DAILY SACRIFICE OF PRAISE

The call to rejoice and give thanks in every circumstance does not deny grief or hardship; it anchors hope in God's unchanging character. Christians can practise gratitude by praising God, recalling His works, giving testimony, serving others and offering their gifts. A thankful heart brings glory to God, strengthens perseverance and makes worship a way of life.

DEEPER LIFE BIBLE CHURCH (DEEPER CHRISTIAN LIFE MINISTRY)

...achieving heaven's goal

WORD OF GOD.
Preacher: Pastor Dr. William F. Kumuyi
Key Scripture: Psalm 119:105; John 8:31–32; Romans 12:1–2; 2 Timothy 3:16–17; James 1:22–25; Hebrews 10:24–25

SCRIPTURE AS FOUNDATION AND LIGHT

God's Word reveals truth, guides choices and equips believers for every good work. It is not simply information or a source of comfort: Scripture calls people to repentance, faith, holiness and a renewed mind. Jesus' promise that truth makes people free is received through abiding in His teaching.

HEAR, OBEY AND GROW

James compares a hearer who does not obey to someone who forgets their reflection. Genuine discipleship joins understanding with action. Regular Bible study, prayer and fellowship nurture spiritual maturity; obedience in private conduct, family life, work and relationships makes the Word visible. Holiness is a response to God's transforming truth, not a substitute for grace.

WITNESS AND FELLOWSHIP

Believers are called to encourage one another, gather faithfully and serve the church. The Word also commissions Christians to share the gospel and live as light in the world. In difficult seasons, its promises sustain trust and steadfastness. A life shaped by Scripture becomes a credible witness to Christ, displaying integrity, love and practical service.

THE PRODIGAL EXPERIENCE (1)

Preacher: Dr. Daniel Kolawole Olukoya
Key Scripture: Luke 15:11–24; Isaiah 55:6–7; 1 John 1:9; Psalm 51:10–12; Proverbs 28:13

THE DEPARTURE AND ITS COST

The younger son's demand pictures the desire to live independently of the Father. His departure brings waste, hunger and humiliation. The parable warns that choices made outside God's wisdom carry spiritual and practical consequences; distance from God depletes the life that once seemed self-directed.

REPENTANCE OPENS THE WAY HOME

The turning point comes when the son recognises his condition, remembers his father's goodness and resolves to return. Repentance is more than regret: it confesses sin and changes direction. The son does not bargain for innocence; he comes honestly, trusting mercy. Believers are urged not to let pride or shame delay confession and restoration.

THE FATHER'S MERCY AND A NEW WALK

The father runs to meet his returning child, receives him and restores him to the household. This reveals God's readiness to forgive those who genuinely turn to Him. Restoration is not permission to continue in rebellion; grace calls for a transformed life, renewed fellowship and faithful obedience. While life remains, there is hope to return, receive mercy and walk closely with God.

MESSAGE

CHRIST EMBASSY (LOVEWORLD)

THE MONTH OF PROCLAMATION
Preacher: Pastor Chris Oyakhilome
Key Scripture: Hebrews 13:5–6; Mark 11:23; Romans 10:9–10; Proverbs 18:21; 2 Corinthians 4:13; Psalm 91:2; Philippians 4:13

SPEAK IN AGREEMENT WITH THE WORD

October is presented as the Month of Proclamation: believers are encouraged to declare God's promises. Biblical proclamation is not positive thinking or an attempt to control God; it is confession shaped by Scripture and confidence in His presence. Hebrews 13:5–6 grounds courage in the Lord's promise never to forsake His people.

FAITH AND THE TONGUE

Faith receives God's Word and gives it voice. Romans 10 links believing in the heart with confession, while Mark 11 teaches trust in God when praying. Because words influence thought and conduct, Christians should reject speech ruled by fear, defeat or despair and speak truth with conviction, humility and responsibility.

A WITNESS OF HOPE

Proclamation must be consistent with a life of faith, prayer, integrity and love. God's Word builds assurance for trials and strengthens believers to face the future without surrendering to fear. Christians can also speak hope to others, sharing the gospel and encouraging the discouraged. The aim is a community whose speech and conduct testify to Christ's sufficiency.

GROWING IN LOVE THROUGH CLOSENESS TO GOD

Preacher: Dr. Paul Enenche
Key Scripture: John 13:23; 1 John 4:7–8, 16; Psalm 27:4; John 15:9–10; Ephesians 3:17–19; Galatians 5:22–23; 1 Corinthians 13:4–7

INTIMACY WITH THE GOD OF LOVE

Because God is love, nearness to Him should reshape the believer's heart. The beloved disciple's closeness to Jesus illustrates relationship, trust and attentive fellowship. Prayer, worship, Scripture and obedience are not religious routine alone; they make room for God's character to form His people.

CHRISTLIKE LOVE IN ACTION

Jesus is the perfect pattern of self-giving love. Love is more than warm language: it is patient, kind, humble, forgiving and unwilling to harm or exploit another. As Christians abide in Christ, the fruit of the Spirit should become visible in how they treat family, neighbours, colleagues and strangers.

A LIFE THAT BLESSES OTHERS

David's desire to dwell with God points to a heart that seeks God above passing rewards. Closeness to Him cultivates compassion, endurance and a readiness to serve. Love must be practised across home, church and community, including through forgiveness and practical help. The measure of spiritual intimacy is not merely religious activity or knowledge, but a growing likeness to Christ in daily relationships.

SALVATION MINISTRIES (HOME OF SUCCESS)

FAITH.
Preacher: Pastor David Ibiyeomie
Key Scripture: Hebrews 11:6; Romans 10:17; Proverbs 3:5–6; Psalm 37:5; Matthew 6:33; James 1:22; Philippians 4:13

FAITH ROOTED IN GOD'S WORD

Faith is confidence in God, cultivated as His Word is heard and believed. It pleases God because it trusts His character and promises, even when circumstances remain difficult. Christians are called to commit their way to Him and seek His wisdom rather than rely solely on their own understanding.

SEEK GOD FIRST AND OBEY

Matthew 6:33 places God's kingdom and righteousness before competing pursuits. Faith therefore shapes priorities and becomes visible in obedience, not merely speech. Believers should act on Scripture in their decisions, work and relationships, trusting God for direction while accepting the responsibility to do what His Word teaches.

PRAYER, ENDURANCE AND SERVICE

Prayer expresses dependence on God for strength, wisdom and provision. In hardship, faith perseveres without pretending that pain is unreal; it remembers that God remains present and able to sustain His people. Christian character—integrity, humility and love—should accompany confidence. As believers grow in faith, they serve God and others, live purposefully and become testimonies that encourage the church and community.

THE APOSTOLIC CHURCH NIGERIA (TACN)

THE WORD OF GOD.
Key Scripture: Psalm 119:105; John 14:6; Hebrews 11:6; Romans 10:17; James 1:22; Romans 12:1–2; Matthew 5:14–16; Hebrews 10:24–25

THE WORD AS LIGHT AND FOUNDATION

God's Word gives direction and reveals Christ, the way, truth and life. It grounds Christian faith and equips believers to discern God's will. The Apostolic emphasis on biblical teaching and prayer calls worshippers to receive Scripture reverently and let it shape their understanding, choices and hope.

FAITH MADE VISIBLE

Faith grows through hearing God's Word, but James insists that hearing must lead to obedience. A renewed mind and holy character should distinguish Christian life. Prayer and fellowship sustain discipleship, while gathering together allows believers to encourage one another and remain steadfast in the faith.

WITNESS, SERVICE AND HOLINESS

Jesus calls His followers the light of the world. Christians are therefore commissioned to share the gospel, serve faithfully and display Christ's character in everyday life. The message joins devotion with public witness: Scripture should direct conduct at home and in society. As believers walk in its light, their lives point others to Jesus and strengthen the church's mission.

DAYSTAR CHRISTIAN CENTRE

GOD'S WORD

Preacher: Dr. Sam Adeyemi (Senior Pastor named in the source)

Key Scripture: 2 Timothy 3:16–17; Psalm 119:105; Hebrews 11:6; Romans 10:17; James 1:22; Proverbs 3:5–6; Matthew 5:14–16; Philippians 4:13

SCRIPTURE FOR TRANSFORMATION

God's Word teaches, corrects and equips believers for a fruitful life. It is a source of direction and strength, but its purpose is not fulfilled by hearing alone. Christians must act on its truth, trust God's guidance and allow Scripture to shape their decisions and habits.

GROWTH AND GOD-GIVEN POTENTIAL

Spiritual growth involves discovering and developing the abilities God has entrusted to each person. Faith gives courage to learn, mature and use those gifts with purpose. Excellence and accountability belong alongside righteousness and love: achievement is Christian when it serves good ends and honours God.

ROLE MODELS WHO SERVE

Believers are called to embody the Word as examples in family, workplace and community. Their character, choices and relationships should make faith credible. Gifts and opportunities are not for self-advancement alone; Christians should use them to serve others, contribute to society and raise hope. Such practical influence reflects Daystar's emphasis on developing potential and raising role models.

BEARING FRUIT FOR GOD AND TRUSTING IN HIS PEACE

Preacher: Homilist not identified in the supplied report

Key Scripture: Isaiah 5:1–7; Psalm 80; Philippians 4:6–9; Matthew 21:33–43

THE VINEYARD AND ITS FRUIT

The readings portray Israel as God's carefully tended vineyard. In Isaiah, the vineyard yields wild grapes; in Matthew, tenants reject the owner's messengers and son. God's care is generous, yet covenant life carries responsibility. The fruit He seeks includes justice, mercy, faithfulness, love and service.

CHRIST, THE CORNERSTONE

Jesus' parable warns against rejecting God's claim and those He sends. The rejected stone becomes the cornerstone: Christ is the foundation of the Church and the measure of faithful response. God's patience invites conversion, but mercy calls for renewed fidelity, not presumption. Believers are stewards of gifts and must bear lasting fruit.

PRAYER AND THE PEACE OF GOD

Philippians counsels against anxiety by directing every need to God in prayer, supplication and thanksgiving. The promised peace guards hearts and minds in Christ; it does not depend on every difficulty disappearing. Christians are also urged to dwell on what is true, just, pure and worthy. On this Sunday in Ordinary Time, the readings unite gratitude, fruitful discipleship and trust in God.

CHURCH OF NIGERIA (ANGLICAN COMMUNION)

LIVING AS FAITHFUL STEWARDS OF GOD

Preacher: Preacher not identified in the supplied report; the Most Rev. Dr. Henry C. Ndukuba is listed as Primate of All Nigeria

Key Scripture: Isaiah 5:1–7; Philippians 4:6–9; Matthew 21:33–43

GOD'S VINEYARD AND ITS FRUIT

Isaiah's vineyard and Jesus' parable show God's people as recipients of care and trust. The owner provides what the vineyard needs and expects good fruit. Christian fruit includes justice, mercy, love, obedience and service; faith must become visible in conduct, not remain a profession.

STEWARDSHIP UNDER CHRIST

Every gift and responsibility—family, education, leadership, work, resources and spiritual gifts—is entrusted for faithful use. The tenants' rebellion warns against selfishness and refusal to honour God. Jesus, the rejected stone made cornerstone, must shape believers' values and decisions. Faithfulness means doing what is right even when unseen.

PRAYER, PEACE AND DISCERNMENT

Philippians calls Christians to bring anxiety to God with prayer and thanksgiving. His peace guards the heart amid unresolved difficulties. The instruction to dwell on what is true, honourable, just, pure and commendable also disciplines thought and behaviour. In the Anglican call to evangelise and disciple, fruitful stewardship joins prayer, faithful service and a life that advances God's Kingdom.

FAITHFUL STEWARDSHIP AND PRODUCING GOOD FRUIT

Preacher: His Eminence Dr. Oliver Ali Aba (Prelate named in the source; preacher not separately identified)

Key Scripture: Matthew 21:33–46; Exodus 20:1–4, 7–9, 12–20; Psalm 19; Philippians 3:4–14; Isaiah 5:1–7; Philippians 4:6–9

THE VINEYARD AND ITS TRUST

Jesus' vineyard parable presents life and opportunity as gifts entrusted by God. Tenants are expected to return fruit to the owner; believers likewise answer for their time, talents, resources, family and leadership. Methodist discipleship joins worship with evangelism, education, healthcare and service to humanity.

FRUITFUL, FAITHFUL LIVING

Good fruit appears as love, patience, honesty, justice, mercy, forgiveness, obedience and practical service. The tenants' violence warns against selfishness and rebellion, while the owner's repeated appeals reveal divine patience and the opportunity to repent. Christ, the rejected cornerstone, must remain the foundation of values, relationships and decisions.

PRAYER AND STEADFASTNESS

Philippians teaches believers to bring concerns to God with prayer and thanksgiving rather than surrender to anxiety. God's peace sustains trust through hardship and directs attention toward what is true and worthy. Faithful stewardship is therefore active: Christians pray, obey, serve their neighbours and use what they have received to bring glory to God.

TESTIMONIES

Victory Through Three Hundred
Israel trembled beneath Midian's oppression, yet God chose Gideon and reduced his army from thousands to only three hundred, ensuring that victory would display divine strength, not human numbers. Carrying trumpets, jars, and concealed torches, the men surrounded the camp at night. Their step of faith and obedience was to accept God's unlikely strategy and act together at Gideon's signal. As they blew the trumpets, shattered the jars, and raised their lights, the Lord threw the enemy into confusion and secured Israel's deliverance. We testify that God makes weakness a stage for His glory. Trust God today; place your insufficiency in His hands, and receive courage for every battle.

Bible Verses: Judges 7:7, 19–22

Lazarus Called Back to Life
Four days after Lazarus was buried, Jesus arrived in Bethany, where grief had settled like a shadow over Martha and Mary. Martha confessed that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and the resurrection and the life. Their step of faith and obedience was to roll away the stone at His command, despite the finality and decay before them. Jesus thanked the Father, called Lazarus by name, and the dead man walked out alive. We testify that no delay, tomb, or impossible circumstance can silence Christ's life-giving voice. Trust God today; entrust Him with what seems buried, and receive the hope and restoration only He can give.

Bible Verses: John 11:25–27, 39–44

ABOUT THE PUBLICATION

Kingdom Testament Chronicle is the flagship publication of Covenant Leadership Ministry International (CLMI), a non-denominational ministry committed to reconciling people to God, unveiling His Kingdom purpose, nurturing spiritual maturity and equipping believers to lead by the timeless principles of Scripture.

This publication is not for sale and has no commercial or business purpose. It exists solely to circulate the undiluted Word of God as preached by anointed ministers across Nigeria, strengthen the Body of Christ and take the Gospel of salvation to those who are yet to receive Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour.

More than a magazine, Kingdom Testament Chronicle is a vessel of inspiration, transformation and Kingdom advancement. It deepens understanding of God's Word, illuminates His divine agenda for this generation and demonstrates how biblical truths apply to leadership, service, family, ministry, enterprise and everyday life.

Every edition presents spiritually enriching teachings, inspiring testimonies, leadership perspectives, faith-building articles, ministry reports and practical resources that challenge believers to grow in grace and fulfil their divine callings. It seeks to raise Kingdom-minded leaders whose character reflects Christ and whose influence advances God's purposes.

As an extension of CLMI's vision, the Chronicle encourages believers to remain devoted to their local churches, recognising that the strength of Christ's Body is sustained through faithful discipleship, sacrificial service and unwavering commitment to God's Kingdom.

Whether you are a pastor, church worker, professional, student, entrepreneur, new convert or believer seeking deeper fellowship with God, Kingdom Testament Chronicle is your companion for spiritual growth, purposeful leadership and eternal impact.

Welcome to a publication where faith inspires obedience, leadership reflects Christ and every page points the reader towards salvation, service and eternity.
