LIVING FAITH CHURCH WORLDWIDE

UNDERSTANDING THE POWER OF FAITH FOR SUPERNATURAL BREAKTHROUGHS

Preacher: Bishop David Olaniyi Oyedepo, Presiding Bishop, Living Faith Church Worldwide

Faith is the believer's master key to the realm of supernatural possibilities. Drawing from Hebrews 11:1–6, Bishop Oyedepo taught that faith is not wishful thinking but unwavering confidence in God's Word, demonstrated through corresponding action. It gives substance to hope, pleases God and converts divine promises into tangible testimonies. Through faith, believers overcome challenges and access healing, protection, favour, prosperity and fulfilment of destiny. Strong faith develops through continually hearing, studying, meditating upon, declaring and obeying the Word. Doubt, fear, unbelief and negative confession must be resisted because they weaken spiritual confidence and obstruct divine manifestations. Every believer must trust God beyond visible circumstances, pray consistently and speak in agreement with Scripture. When faith remains alive and active, mountains move, obstacles surrender and supernatural breakthroughs become the believer's daily experience.

Key Points

- Faith believes and acts upon God's Word.
- The Word nourishes and strengthens faith.
- Doubt and fear hinder supernatural possibilities.
- Active faith produces victory, miracles and fulfilled promises.

THE REDEEMED CHRISTIAN CHURCH OF GOD

THE POWER OF DIVINE HELP

Preacher: Pastor Enoch Adejare Adeboye, General Overseer, The Redeemed Christian Church of God

Human ability, influence and resources have limits, but divine help introduces God's unlimited power into human circumstances. Pastor Adeboye explained from Psalm 121:1–2 that true help comes from the Lord, the Maker of heaven and earth. God assists His children through Christ, the ministry of the Holy Spirit and people divinely positioned as destiny helpers. Such intervention is essential because some battles exceed human wisdom, while the fulfilment of great destinies requires supernatural assistance. Moses, David, Esther and Peter illustrate how God rescues, promotes and grants victory to those who depend upon Him. Believers position themselves for divine help through an intimate relationship with God, obedience, fervent prayer, faith and diligent study of Scripture. Rather than trusting solely in human connections, Christians must rely upon the God who never forsakes His people. When He intervenes, barriers collapse, opportunities emerge and seemingly impossible testimonies manifest with remarkable speed.

Key Points

- God remains the unfailing source of help.
- Divine intervention surpasses human limitations.
- Prayer, holiness, obedience and faith attract God's help.
- God may work through appointed destiny helpers.

DEEPER LIFE BIBLE CHURCH

THE CHRISTIAN LIFE OF HOLINESS AND OBEDIENCE

Preacher: Pastor William Folorunso Kumuyi, General Superintendent, Deeper Life Bible Church

...achieving heaven's goal

Holiness and obedience are indispensable foundations of authentic Christian discipleship. Pastor Kumuyi taught that salvation must produce a life separated from sin, consecrated to God and increasingly conformed to the character of Christ. Church attendance without daily obedience cannot substitute for genuine Christianity. Because God is holy, His children must pursue purity in conduct, thought, speech and relationship. Holiness strengthens fellowship with God, supports effective service and prepares believers for eternity, for without holiness no one shall see the Lord. Obedience equally reveals love for Christ, attracts divine blessing, promotes spiritual maturity and establishes a credible testimony before the world. Believers cultivate holy living through Scripture, prayer, reliance on the Holy Spirit, godly fellowship and deliberate separation from corrupting influences. Although society's values may change, God's standard remains eternally unchanged. Christians must therefore examine themselves continually, reject compromise and surrender every area of life to God, trusting His grace to preserve them faithful until the end.

Key Points

- Holiness is a divine command, not an option.
- Obedience provides evidence of love for Christ.
- Scripture, prayer and the Holy Spirit sustain purity.
- God's righteous standard never changes.

MOUNTAIN OF FIRE AND MIRACLES MINISTRIES

BREAKING THE YOKE OF DELAY AND STAGNATION

Preacher: Dr. Daniel Kolawole Olukoya, General Overseer, Mountain of Fire and Miracles Ministries

Delay and stagnation are satanic weapons designed to keep destinies beneath their ordained levels. Dr. Olukoya described stagnation as remaining unproductively at one point despite qualifications, effort and available opportunities. Its manifestations include repeated disappointments, setbacks, unfulfilled expectations and failure at the edge of breakthrough. Sin, fear, unbelief, wrong associations, prayerlessness and organised spiritual attacks may sustain such bondage. Nevertheless, Isaiah 10:27 declares that every yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing. Victory requires genuine repentance, persistent prayer, obedience, faith in God's promises and determined spiritual warfare. Joseph's sudden elevation, Hannah's answered prayer, Israel's deliverance and Jabez's transformed destiny prove that prolonged affliction cannot overrule divine intervention. Believers must reject discouragement and arise in holy aggression. When God intervenes, lost opportunities are restored, closed doors open and delayed destinies receive supernatural acceleration. Every stubborn chain of stagnation must expire before the fire and power of God.

Key Points

- Stagnation contradicts God's purpose for His children.
- Repentance and prayer dismantle spiritual barriers.
- The anointing destroys every oppressive yoke.
- God can transform prolonged delay into sudden advancement.

CHRIST EMBASSY

LIVING THE VICTORIOUS LIFE IN CHRIST

Preacher: Reverend Dr. Chris Oyakhilome, D.Sc., D.D., President, Believers' Loveworld Incorporated

The Christian has been born into a life of righteousness, dominion and glory through the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Reverend Dr. Oyakhilome declared that believers are not struggling to obtain victory; they function from Christ's already accomplished triumph. The new creation is born of God, filled with the Holy Spirit, clothed in divine righteousness and made a partaker of the divine nature. Seated with Christ in heavenly places, the believer possesses spiritual authority and is more than a conqueror. Greater is the Spirit within than every force operating in the world. This victorious consciousness grows through meditation on God's Word, prayer, Spirit-filled living, love and faith-filled confession. Christians must refuse fear, defeat and identity built upon past failures. By using the Name of Jesus and speaking in agreement with Scripture, they manifest divine health, peace, excellence and purposeful living. Victory is therefore the believer's present reality and divinely ordained lifestyle in Christ.

Key Points

- The new creation possesses a new identity.
- Believers operate from Christ's finished victory.
- God's Word renews victorious consciousness.
- The Holy Spirit empowers a life of dominion and excellence.

DUNAMIS INTERNATIONAL GOSPEL CENTRE

THE POWER OF FAITH FOR SUPERNATURAL RESULTS

Preacher: Dr. Paul Enenche, Senior Pastor, Dunamis International Gospel Centre

Faith is the spiritual currency through which believers transact with heaven and experience supernatural results. Dr. Enenche explained that faith is absolute confidence in God's character, ability and Word, expressed by believing before seeing and acting despite contrary circumstances. It pleases God, commands miracles, overcomes opposition and secures divine promises. Faith grows through sustained exposure to Scripture, a vibrant prayer life, faith-building testimonies, positive declarations and prompt obedience to divine instructions. Believers must refuse fear, doubt and unbelief because no challenge is greater than the God who created heaven and earth. The miracles recorded in Scripture reveal a God whose power has not diminished and whose faithfulness remains unquestionable. Christians should therefore confront every mountain with the Word, maintain confident expectation and translate conviction into action. When faith becomes both a settled persuasion and a practical lifestyle, impossibilities surrender, divine intervention becomes visible and ordinary lives produce extraordinary testimonies that reveal God's glory and fulfil destiny.

Key Points

- Faith gives access to supernatural possibilities.
- Scripture and prayer build spiritual confidence.
- Faith must speak, obey and act.
- No obstacle can withstand God-backed faith.

SALVATION MINISTRIES

UNDERSTANDING THE PRINCIPLES OF DIVINE SUCCESS

Preacher: Pastor David Ibiyeomie, Senior Pastor, Salvation Ministries

Divine success is the fulfilment of God's purpose in every dimension of life, not merely the accumulation of wealth. Pastor Ibiyeomie taught that God desires His children to prosper spiritually, physically, relationally, professionally and financially. Joshua 1:8 reveals that good success follows sustained meditation upon and obedience to God's Word. Believers must put God first, exercise faith, work diligently and maintain integrity, because lasting achievement is built upon divine principles rather than accidental opportunities. Laziness, fear, negative thinking and disobedience frustrate progress, while discipline, excellence, humility and gratitude sustain increase. Christians must never permit present circumstances to define their future; they should renew their thinking, obey divine direction and apply themselves faithfully to productive work. Success becomes meaningful when it fulfils destiny, blesses families, advances God's Kingdom and positively influences society. As believers align their conduct with Scripture, God supplies wisdom, establishes the work of their hands and grants advancement without sorrow.

Key Points

- Divine success embraces every area of life.
- God's Word supplies wisdom for good success.
- Diligence and integrity sustain lasting prosperity.
- Success should advance God's Kingdom and bless humanity.

THE APOSTOLIC CHURCH NIGERIA

STANDING FIRM IN THE FAITH

Preacher: Pastor Samuel Olusegun Oladele, LAWNA Territorial Chairman and National President, The Apostolic Church Nigeria

The Christian journey demands spiritual vigilance, steadfast conviction and complete dependence upon God. Pastor Oladele taught that standing firm means trusting God during trials, obeying His Word consistently and refusing compromise amid worldly pressures. Because believers participate in a spiritual battle, they must remain watchful, prayerful and equipped with the whole armour of God. Truth, righteousness, the Gospel of peace, faith, salvation and the Word of God provide spiritual defence against every scheme of darkness. Steadfastness is strengthened through daily Scripture study, consistent prayer, Christian fellowship and dependence upon the Holy Spirit. Trials should not produce surrender; they are opportunities to demonstrate confidence in God and mature in perseverance. Temporary adversity cannot cancel God's eternal promises. Christians must therefore remain committed to holiness, evangelism and faithful service, remembering that divine grace sustained the saints of old. Those who endure faithfully will overcome temptation, fulfil God's purpose and receive the eternal reward prepared for Christ's victorious Church.

Key Points

- Christian living requires vigilance and steadfastness.
- God's armour equips believers for spiritual conflict.
- Trials provide opportunities for faith to mature.
- Grace empowers Christians to finish faithfully.

DAYSTAR CHRISTIAN CENTRE

UNLOCKING YOUR GOD-GIVEN POTENTIAL

Preacher: Pastor Sam Adeyemi, Founding and Senior Pastor, Daystar Christian Centre

Every person is God's workmanship, created with distinctive gifts, abilities and an assignment capable of blessing humanity. Pastor Adeyemi taught that potential is the hidden capacity placed within an individual, awaiting discovery, disciplined development and purposeful deployment. No life is accidental or empty of significance. However, fear, laziness, negative thinking, poor associations and lack of vision can keep divine possibilities dormant. Believers must seek God for clarity of purpose, invest continually in knowledge and skills, build character and courageously take responsibility for growth. Joseph, David, Esther and Paul demonstrate that difficult beginnings need not prevent destiny fulfilment when faithfulness and preparation accompany divine guidance. Potential reaches its highest expression when it solves problems, serves people and glorifies God. Christians must therefore move beyond passive wishing into intentional learning, disciplined action and dependence upon divine wisdom. When gifts are developed and character is strengthened, individuals become transformational leaders whose influence enriches families, communities and generations.

Key Points

- Every individual carries God-given potential.
- Potential requires discovery, discipline and development.
- Character sustains influence and achievement.
- Fulfilled purpose should serve humanity and glorify God.

CATHOLIC CHURCH

PERSEVERANCE IN FAITH AND TRUST IN GOD

Spiritual Reflection under His Holiness Pope Leo XIV, Supreme Pontiff of the Catholic Church

The sacred readings invite the faithful to trust God's abiding presence amid the storms of life. Isaiah proclaims God's strengthening companionship, while Psalm 27 confesses the Lord as light and salvation. In the Gospel, Peter walks upon the water while his attention remains fixed on Christ but begins to sink when fear redirects his gaze towards the storm. The episode teaches that Christian faith is not denial of difficulty; it is persevering confidence in the Lord who meets His people within it. Trials can deepen character, purify trust and reveal divine grace. The faithful are therefore called to remain patient, prayerful and obedient, confident that God works all things for the good of those who love Him. Regular participation in the Mass, meditation upon Scripture, compassionate service and mutual encouragement sustain perseverance. With eyes fixed upon Christ, fear loses its authority, hope is renewed and the Christian community becomes a visible witness to God's unfailing presence.

Key Points

- God remains present in every storm.
- Faith grows when attention remains fixed on Christ.
- Trials can become instruments of spiritual formation.
- Prayer, patience and community sustain perseverance.

ANGLICAN CHURCH

WALKING IN OBEDIENCE AND FAITHFULNESS TO GOD

Preacher: The Most Reverend Henry Chukwudum Ndukuba, Primate of the Church of Nigeria (Anglican Communion)

Christian obedience is the practical expression of faith and love for God. Archbishop Ndukuba emphasised that hearing Scripture without applying it produces self-deception, while faithful obedience opens life to divine guidance and spiritual maturity. God's Word is the lamp that illuminates moral choices, directs daily conduct and preserves believers from darkness. The promises of Deuteronomy reveal that obedience positions God's people to receive His favour, while Christ teaches that keeping His commandments demonstrates genuine love for Him. Christians must listen attentively, respond promptly and trust God even when His instructions appear demanding. Such faithfulness must be visible in prayer, integrity, humble service, compassion and responsible decision-making. The Holy Spirit supplies the grace required for consistent obedience and perseverance. Believers should not separate worship from conduct; the truth proclaimed in church must shape life at home, work and society. God faithfully guides and strengthens those who walk wholeheartedly in His ways.

Key Points

- Obedience demonstrates genuine faith and love.
- Scripture directs conduct and moral decisions.
- Delayed obedience can hinder spiritual progress.
- The Holy Spirit empowers consistent faithfulness.

METHODIST CHURCH NIGERIA

FAITHFUL STEWARDSHIP IN GOD'S KINGDOM

Preacher: His Eminence Dr. Oliver Ali Aba, Prelate of Methodist Church Nigeria

Faithful stewardship begins with the confession that the earth and everything within it belong to God. His Eminence Dr. Aba taught that believers are custodians, not absolute owners, of their time, talents, finances, relationships, opportunities and spiritual gifts. God requires faithfulness in every responsibility and will call each steward to account. Christian stewardship therefore extends beyond tithing to disciplined living, compassionate service, responsible financial management and faithful proclamation of the Gospel. Joseph, Daniel and Paul exemplified integrity in entrusted duties, while Jesus Christ remains the perfect model of obedient service. The measure of stewardship is not the size of one's resources but the sincerity and diligence with which they are employed for God's glory. Mature Christians use their gifts to strengthen the Church, assist the vulnerable and improve society. When believers manage divine trusts faithfully, they become channels of grace and prepare to hear the Master's commendation: “Well done, good and faithful servant.”

Key Points

- God owns everything entrusted to humanity.
- Stewardship covers time, talents, treasures and relationships.
- Every steward is accountable to God.
- Faithful service glorifies God and blesses others.

TESTIMONIES

1. Laughter Born from Promise

When Abraham and Sarah had outlived every natural possibility of parenthood, God visited them exactly as He had spoken. Isaac's birth transformed decades of waiting, tears, and apparent impossibility into covenant laughter. Their clear step of faith and obedience was to trust the Promiser, receive the child with gratitude, name him Isaac, and circumcise him as God commanded. This testimony declares that delay never cancels a divine promise and human weakness cannot exhaust God's power. The Lord who remembered Sarah remains faithful today; trust Him with every impossibility, wait with expectant worship, and receive the living hope His unchanging word gives.

Bible Verses: Genesis 21:1–3; Hebrews 11:11

2 The Storm Obeyed His Voice

A violent storm engulfed the disciples' boat until waves poured in and seasoned fishermen feared death, yet Jesus rested amid the chaos. They cried to Him, and Christ arose, rebuked the wind, and commanded the sea; raging creation immediately settled into a great calm. Their step of faith and obedience was to sail at His word and, when overwhelmed, turn to the Lord who was with them. This testimony assures us that no tempest outranks divine authority and no frightened cry escapes God's hearing. If life's storms have exhausted you, trust God with your fear and rest in His sovereign presence, which gives peace deeper than circumstances.

Bible Verses: Mark 4:37–41; Luke 8:23–25
