TAKING THE GOOD NEWS TO THE NATIONS

SUNDAY 9 AUGUST, 2026

RAISING KINGDOM LEADERS

REACHING NATIONS

CHANGING LIVES

Editorial Note

Welcome to this edition of the Sunday Sermon Digest, a thoughtfully curated treasury of inspiring messages proclaimed across leading Christian traditions in Nigeria on Sunday, 9 August 2026. More than a record of pulpit ministry, this Digest distils essential biblical truths, practical wisdom and spiritual insights into concise reflections for personal devotion, Christian leadership and diligent study of Scripture.

Though delivered from different pulpits and denominational traditions, these messages converge on one unchanging truth: Jesus Christ remains the sure foundation of faith and life. From divine healing and spiritual authority to salvation, expectant faith, purposeful service and victorious Christian living, each sermon calls believers beyond merely hearing the Word to living it—trusting God wholeheartedly, deepening their prayer lives, pursuing holiness and faithfully fulfilling their God-given assignments.

As you prayerfully journey through these pages, may the Holy Spirit breathe afresh upon every truth, strengthen your inner being, renew your mind and awaken courageous obedience. May these messages become living seeds that bear lasting fruit in homes, churches, workplaces and communities, raising believers whose lives glorify God and reveal the grace, power and compassion of Christ to the world.

Jesus is Lord.

MESSAGE

LIVING FAITH CHURCH WORLDWIDE (WINNERS' CHAPEL INTERNATIONAL)

Jesus Christ Still Heals and Delivers Today!

Preacher: Bishop David Olaniyi Oyedepo, Founder and President

Jesus Christ remains the unchanging Healer and Deliverer; the compassion and power displayed in His earthly ministry are alive today. Through His finished work, believers receive forgiveness, healing, restoration and liberty, for no affliction or oppression can outrank His authority. Like the woman with the issue of blood, faith must advance from hearing into Word-driven action. Believers build faith through Scripture, pray expectantly, reject fear and speak in agreement with God's promises. Even when intervention seems delayed, Christ's victory stands and His grace sustains. Thanksgiving fixes the heart upon divine faithfulness. Therefore, Christians must obey God, remain committed to fellowship and Kingdom service, and look continually to Jesus—the same yesterday, today and forever—for wholeness and freedom.

Key Points

- Healing and deliverance remain available through Christ's completed redemption.
- Faith receives God's Word and responds with courageous action.
- Prayer, Scripture and thanksgiving silence fear and sustain expectation.
- Obedience, confession and Kingdom service reinforce victorious living.
- No affliction can withstand the authority of Jesus Christ.

MESSAGE

THE REDEEMED CHRISTIAN CHURCH OF GOD (RCCG)

Walking in God's Word, Faith and Divine Healing

Preacher: Pastor Enoch Adejare Adeboye, General Overseer

Scripture is the believer's inspired foundation, teaching truth, correcting error and equipping God's people for fruitful living. Faith trusts God when answers appear delayed; it neither denies trouble nor places it above divine faithfulness. Christ remains compassionate and able to heal, and believers may approach Him prayerfully while receiving appropriate care. Yet faith must mature into obedience: holiness should govern thoughts, words, relationships and choices. Consistent prayer deepens fellowship with God and supplies grace for difficult seasons, while thanksgiving remembers past mercies and steadies the heart. Christianity is more than church attendance; it is a daily witness through which Jesus becomes visible. As RCCG pursues heaven and carries others along, every believer must study the Word, serve faithfully and proclaim the Gospel.

Key Points

- God's Word establishes sound doctrine, conduct and spiritual stability.
- Faith rests in God's presence and unchanging promises.
- Christ remains the compassionate Healer of body and soul.
- Prayer, obedience, holiness and thanksgiving sustain victorious living.
- Transformed believers must serve and lead others towards Christ.

MESSAGE

DEEPER CHRISTIAN LIFE MINISTRY (DCLM)

...achieving heaven's goal

THE FINAL SOLUTION: JESUS

Preacher: Pastor William Folorunso Kumuyi, General Superintendent

Humanity's deepest crisis is sin, which separates the soul from a holy God. Education, medicine, wealth and relationships have value, yet none can cleanse guilt or grant eternal life. Jesus Christ is not one option among many: He is God's final and sufficient answer—the Way to the Father, Saviour of sinners and Rest for the burdened. Through His atoning death and resurrection, the repentant receive forgiveness, reconciliation, living hope and transformed hearts. Salvation demands a personal response: repent, believe in Christ, confess Him as Lord and continue in obedient faith. A genuine encounter with Jesus produces holiness, love, truthfulness, humility and perseverance. Believers must keep Christ central through prayer, Scripture and fellowship, while the Church faithfully proclaims Him to a searching world.

Key Points

- Sin is humanity's fundamental problem; Christ alone saves completely.
- Repentance and personal faith open the way to reconciliation.
- Jesus gives rest, hope, transformation and everlasting life.
- Genuine salvation bears visible fruit in holiness and obedience.
- Every believer must depend upon Christ and proclaim His Gospel.

MOUNTAIN OF FIRE AND MIRACLES MINISTRIES (MFM)

FAITH, PRAYER AND WALKING IN GOD'S POWER

Preacher: Dr Daniel Kolawole Olukoya, General Overseer

Victorious living is sustained by faith, prayer, holiness and complete dependence upon God. Faith rests not upon circumstances but upon God's unchanging character; delayed answers must never produce fear or surrender. Prayer is both fellowship and spiritual warfare, imparting wisdom, strength and scriptural authority for confronting adversity. It must remain joined to submission, obedience and confidence in God's perfect will. Psalm 91 reveals the Most High as our refuge, while Ephesians 6 commands believers to wear the whole armour of God. Christians resist fear, temptation and satanic assault by remaining rooted in Scripture, worship and righteous living. Persistent faith keeps expectation alive. As believers pray fervently, meditate upon the Word and stand strong in the Lord, they overcome through Christ and manifest God's protecting and delivering power.

Key Points

- Faith honours God and refuses surrender to visible circumstances.
- Persistent, believing prayer accesses divine wisdom, strength and intervention.
- God's Word and armour equip believers for spiritual resistance.
- Holiness and obedience preserve effective fellowship with God.
- Victory belongs to those who remain steadfast in Christ.

MESSAGE

CHRIST EMBASSY LOVEWORLD NATION

DELIVERED AND TRANSLATED

Preacher: Reverend Dr Chris Oyakhilome, President

The Christian life is an accomplished reality of victory, dominion and glory. According to Colossians 1:12–13, God has delivered believers from the authority of darkness and translated them into the Kingdom of His dear Son. Christians must therefore reject bondage, fear and defeat, and live from their new identity in Christ. As new creations, they are seated with Christ and called to express divine love, wisdom, holiness and excellence. In this Month of Beauty, believers recognise that God's beauty is more than outward appearance: it is the radiance of His character and glory manifested through transformed lives. Kingdom consciousness grows through meditation upon Scripture, faith-filled confession, prayer and speaking in tongues. Believers must walk in dominion without arrogance, influence their world positively and give thanks for the beautiful life received in Christ.

Key Points

- Know and consciously affirm your new identity in Christ.
- Speak God's Word, pray consistently and fellowship with the Holy Spirit.
- Manifest divine beauty, excellence, love and dominion everywhere.

DUNAMIS INTERNATIONAL GOSPEL CENTRE WORLDWIDE

THE ATTITUDE OF EXPECTANCY

Preacher: Dr Paul Idoko Enenche, Senior Pastor

Expectancy is faith looking forward confidently to the manifestation of God's promises. Hebrews 11:1 shows that genuine expectation is not empty optimism, but assurance rooted in God's character and Word. Believers must pray expectantly, refusing to allow contrary circumstances, negativity or delay to extinguish hope. Delay is not denial: God works according to appointed times, and waiting seasons can produce patience, maturity and deeper dependence upon Him. Yet expectancy is never passive. Whoever anticipates spiritual growth, opportunity or divine intervention must prepare through prayer, study, discipline and obedient action. Joy and thanksgiving sustain the heart before the answer becomes visible because confidence rests in God rather than changing conditions. Even amid pressure, believers must expect God's guidance, provision, strength and goodness while submitting every desire to His perfect will. Living expectation will ultimately become a testimony that glorifies God.

Key Points

- Build every expectation upon Scripture, not personal desire alone.
- Pray believing, wait patiently and reject discouragement.
- Prepare diligently, remain thankful and expect God's goodness.

MESSAGE

SALVATION MINISTRIES (HOME OF SALVATION)

Walking in the Power and Victory of God's Word

Preacher: Pastor David Ibiyeomie

God has ordained His children for victorious and purposeful living, and His Word is the unshakable foundation for that life. Scripture illuminates the believer's path, imparts wisdom, corrects error and reveals decisions that honour God. Because faith comes by hearing, consistent study, meditation and application of the Word develop spiritual confidence and silence fear. Divine promises remain dependable even when answers seem delayed, for circumstances cannot overturn God's faithfulness. Through Christ, believers possess victory—not exemption from challenges, but grace and authority to overcome them without surrendering to discouragement. Prayer keeps the heart dependent upon God, while obedience converts revelation into results. Every Christian must discover and pursue God-given purpose with integrity, using gifts, opportunities and resources to bless family, church and society. Thanksgiving and praise preserve an awareness of God's goodness and turn attention from problems to the greatness of the covenant-keeping God.

Key Points

- Study, meditate upon and practise God's Word daily.
- Confront fear through faith, prayer and Christ-consciousness.
- Walk obediently in purpose, thanksgiving and assured victory.

MESSAGE

THE APOSTOLIC CHURCH NIGERIA

Walking in Faith and Obedience to God's Word

Preacher: Pastor M. O. Ogunibe, National/Area Minister

God calls His people to lives in which faith and obedience remain inseparable. Biblical faith rests upon God's character and promises even when the desired outcome is unseen; obedience is evidence that faith is alive. As believers study Scripture, confidence grows, conduct is corrected and their steps receive divine direction. They must not lean solely upon human understanding, but acknowledge God in every decision and follow His instructions even when doing so requires sacrifice or patient waiting. Prayer sustains intimate fellowship with God, while holiness brings the heart, thoughts, speech and actions under Christ's lordship. Trials do not prove divine abandonment; rightly endured, they deepen perseverance and dependence upon grace. Christians must therefore remain steadfast, resist fear and make their faith visible through love, integrity, service and godly conduct. Such lives become compelling testimonies, drawing families, churches and communities towards Christ.

Key Points

- Feed faith continually through God's Word and prayer.
- Prove faith through obedience, holiness and sacrificial action.
- Stand firm in trials and reflect Christ to others.

DAYSTAR CHRISTIAN CENTRE

Living a Purposeful Life Through Faith and God's Word

Preacher: Pastor Sam Adeyemi

God created every person with purpose, and life gains meaning when divine intention becomes disciplined action. Purpose is not confined to fame or position; it is expressed wherever believers use their gifts to serve families, workplaces and communities. Jeremiah 29:11 assures us that God holds a hopeful future, while Ephesians 2:10 reveals that we are fashioned for good works. Discovering purpose requires prayerful self-awareness, learning and responsible development of one's abilities. Romans 12:2 calls for renewed thinking because fear, failure and limiting beliefs can imprison potential. Faith supplies courage when the path is unclear, but fulfilment also demands integrity, perseverance and consistent action. Past mistakes should become lessons, not life sentences. As believers trust God beyond their limited understanding, He directs their steps and transforms their gifts into channels of service and generational blessing.

Key Points

- Renew the mind with God's truth.
- Develop gifts through disciplined growth.
- Pursue purpose with faith and integrity.
- Serve others and trust God's direction.

MESSAGE

CATHOLIC CHURCH

Living by Faith and Trusting in God's Providence

Celebrant and Preacher: The Reverend Father E. A. Alo

Within the Liturgy of the Word, the faithful were summoned to rest in divine providence and remain watchful for the Lord. Abraham obeyed God's call without possessing every detail of the journey; authentic faith is confident surrender amid uncertainty. Because the Father knows and sustains His children, believers need not be ruled by anxiety, yet trust never excuses idleness. Grace calls forth responsible work, prudent planning and faithful stewardship. In Luke 12, Christ's command to remain ready makes Christian vigilance a daily vocation expressed through prayer, repentance, obedience and mercy. Faith becomes visible in love, forgiveness, generosity and care for the poor and vulnerable. Disciples who live each day consciously before God need not fear the future or the Master's return. They can await Him with hope, prepared hearts and fruitful hands.

Key Points

- Entrust the unseen future to God's providence.
- Remain watchful through prayer and repentance.
- Steward every gift with responsibility and generosity.
- Make faith visible through obedient and merciful service.

MESSAGE

ANGLICAN CHURCH OF NIGERIA

WALKING BY FAITH AND TRUSTING GOD IN EVERY SITUATION

Preacher: The Most Reverend Henry Chukwudum Ndukuba, Archbishop, Metropolitan and Primate of All Nigeria

Drawing upon Peter's encounter with Christ on the troubled sea, Archbishop Ndukuba proclaimed that faith does not deny the storm; it trusts the Lord who rules it. Peter walked while his gaze remained upon Jesus; when the waves captured his attention, fear displaced trust and he began to sink. The scene mirrors Christian discipleship: changing circumstances must never outweigh God's unchanging character. To walk by faith is to receive Scripture as life's compass, obey without complete understanding and pray in conscious dependence upon God. Trials may test the heart, yet God uses them to deepen patience, maturity and reliance upon grace. Believers must therefore resist fear, keep their eyes upon Christ and remember His faithfulness with thanksgiving. Even when answers tarry, the Church continues believing and obeying, assured that the One who calls us across the waters also stretches forth His saving hand.

Key Points

- Fix your eyes upon Christ, not the storm.
- Trust God's wisdom beyond present understanding.
- Let faith become prayerful obedience.
- Give thanks and persevere through every trial.

MESSAGE

METHODIST CHURCH NIGERIA

KEEPING FAITH IN GOD THROUGH THE STORMS OF LIFE

Preacher: The Most Reverend Olumuyiwa Odejayi, Archbishop of Ibadan

Bringing Joseph's betrayal alongside the disciples' storm, Archbishop Odejayi showed that hardship neither proves God's absence nor cancels His purpose. Joseph's descent into the pit appeared to contradict his dream, yet divine providence was working through what he could not understand. On Galilee's waters, Peter moved at Christ's word but faltered when the storm filled his vision more than the Saviour. Both accounts call the Church to persevering faith: keep looking to Jesus, receive Scripture as truth and refuse to let delayed answers become surrendered hope. Romans 10 reminds us that faith responds personally to Christ and bears fruit in obedience, love, forgiveness and service. Prayer sustains this trust in crisis and ordinary life. Though tomorrow remains hidden, God is faithful. Christians must therefore continue praying, serving and encouraging the afflicted until His gracious purpose becomes clear.

Key Points

- Hardship cannot cancel God's redemptive purpose.
- Keep Christ, not the storm, at the centre.
- Persevere in Scripture, prayer and obedient service.
- Entrust the unseen future to God's faithfulness.

TESTIMONY

Supernatural Deliverance!

"On Tuesday, 12th March 2013, while in my shop, I brought out the flier distributed in Church the previous Sunday titled 'Covenant Day of Exemption.' While reading the testimonies behind the flier, two armed men suddenly approached me and said, 'madam, we have arrested all your boys, get up gently, follow us and don't make noise.' On our way, I held the flier and prayed. I said, 'God, what you did for these brethren that I read their testimonies, you must surely do it for me. I'm a winner; I'm not permitted to die like this.' On Sunday, my husband came to Canaanland and told the Bishop that I had been kidnapped. The Bishop shouted and said, 'no, it cannot happen!' He commanded my release and that was it. On Tuesday, 19th March, we were released and given money for transportation. I give all the glory to God!"

Delivered from Strange illness!

"My father was afflicted with a strange illness for two years and medical doctors were unable to diagnose the cause of the illness. Subsequently, his condition deteriorated and his body weight continued to decrease. I knew that it was a spiritual attack. On Monday, January 16, 2012, I wrote on my Prayer Banquet Card that God must heal my father of that terrible illness. Meanwhile, I led him to Christ and told him that if the God of this Commissiondid not heal him, then he can return to his former ways. That same day during the staff devotion in the afternoon, we were privileged to have Bishop Abioye in our midst. He declared by the Spirit of God, 'Any sickness planted by the enemy shall be uprooted right now.' Immediately after the devotion, I was called and informed that my father vomited eight live worms. The last one choked him, so he put his hand inside his mouth and pulled out a dead rat. Immediately, his health was restored. I give God all the glory!"

TESTIMONY

Healed of Tuberculosis!

"I had been suffering from tuberculosis for a very long time. On hearing of the last Anointing Service, I was carried into the church from the hospital, because I could neither walk nor stand. The Bishop while ministering on the anointing oil said, 'When you take a shot of the oil, the power of God it contains will destroy every sickness and disease that followed you to church this morning.' When I heard this, I knew he was talking to me! After I took a shot of the anointing oil, I was healed! Now I can walk and stand on my own, by myself! Every symptom vanished! I thank God for my healing!"

ABOUT THE PUBLICATION

Kingdom Testament Chronicle is the flagship publication of Covenant Leadership Ministry International (CLMI), a non-denominational ministry committed to reconciling people to God, unveiling His Kingdom purpose, nurturing spiritual maturity and equipping believers to lead by the timeless principles of Scripture.

This publication is not for sale and has no commercial or business purpose. It exists solely to circulate the undiluted Word of God as preached by anointed ministers across Nigeria, strengthen the Body of Christ and take the Gospel of salvation to those who are yet to receive Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour.

More than a magazine, Kingdom Testament Chronicle is a vessel of inspiration, transformation and Kingdom advancement. It deepens understanding of God's Word, illuminates His divine agenda for this generation and demonstrates how biblical truths apply to leadership, service, family, ministry, enterprise and everyday life.

Every edition presents spiritually enriching teachings, inspiring testimonies, leadership perspectives, faith-building articles, ministry reports and practical resources that challenge believers to grow in grace and fulfil their divine callings. It seeks to raise Kingdom-minded leaders whose character reflects Christ and whose influence advances God's purposes.

As an extension of CLMI's vision, the Chronicle encourages believers to remain devoted to their local churches, recognising that the strength of Christ's Body is sustained through faithful discipleship, sacrificial service and unwavering commitment to God's Kingdom.

Whether you are a pastor, church worker, professional, student, entrepreneur, new convert or believer seeking deeper fellowship with God, Kingdom Testament Chronicle is your companion for spiritual growth, purposeful leadership and eternal impact.

Welcome to a publication where faith inspires obedience, leadership reflects Christ and every page points the reader towards salvation, service and eternity.

Growing in Christ. Leading with Purpose. Advancing God's Kingdom.
