KINGDOM TESTAMENT Chronicle

TAKING THE GOOD NEWS TO THE NATIONS

SUNDAY 27 SEPTEMBER, 2026

RAISING KINGDOM LEADERS

REACHING NATIONS

CHANGING LIVES

Editorial Note

Welcome to this edition of the Sunday Sermon Digest, a carefully curated collection of inspiring messages delivered across leading Pentecostal and historic Christian traditions in Nigeria on Sunday, 27 September 2026. This publication presents the central biblical truths, practical lessons and enduring spiritual insights from eleven impactful sermons in concise and engaging summaries, making them valuable resources for personal devotion, Christian leadership development and group Bible study.

Though delivered from different pulpits and traditions, these messages point believers to one unchanging truth: genuine Christian living requires faith in God, obedience to His Word, dependence on the Holy Spirit and a life continually transformed by Christ. From creative wisdom and faithful stewardship to sanctification, persistent prayer, spiritual growth, thanksgiving, responsibility, repentance, worship and doing the will of God, these sermons challenge believers to deepen their relationship with Christ and demonstrate their faith through righteous character, service and purposeful living.

As you prayerfully reflect on each message, may the Holy Spirit illuminate the Scriptures, strengthen your faith, deepen your love for God and empower you to live out His Word. May these teachings encourage you to remain steadfast in difficult seasons, grow in spiritual maturity, embrace responsibility, forgive others, serve faithfully and use every blessing and ability entrusted to you for the glory of God and the blessing of others.

If you receive Jesus Christ and get born again through this publication, we encourage you to fellowship with a Bible-believing church and seek pastoral guidance for continued spiritual growth. You can also contact us directly for prayers.

God bless you as you read in the mighty name of Jesus Christ.

Jesus is Lord.

Pastor Folorunso S. Aluko

MESSAGE

Living Faith Church Worldwide

FINANCIAL FORTUNE BANQUET
Preacher: Bishop David Oyedepo
Scripture: Proverbs 8:12; Deuteronomy 8:18; Luke 16:10; Genesis 12:2

At Faith Tabernacle's Financial Fortune Banquet, the September focus, "Creative Wisdom Is My Heritage," frames prosperity as a fruit of godly wisdom, disciplined work and faithful stewardship. Proverbs 8:12 calls believers to seek prudence, knowledge and discretion so they can recognise opportunities, solve problems and create value. Creative wisdom converts opportunities into value for families and communities. Deuteronomy 8:18 reminds them that God grants the ability to produce wealth; this gift calls for gratitude and responsible effort, not passivity. Believers are urged to manage resources carefully, honour obligations and remain faithful in small things. God's blessing also carries a mission: generosity toward family, people in need and worthy causes. Prayerful direction and thanksgiving keep ambition aligned with God's purpose.

Key points

- Wisdom and diligence turn ability into productive, ethical work.
- Stewardship, integrity and gratitude should govern financial decisions.
- Prosperity is a trust: use increase to bless others.

MESSAGE

The Redeemed Christian Church of God

SANCTIFICATION
Preacher: Pastor Enoch Adejare Adeboye
Scripture: 1 Corinthians 6:9–11

Pastor Enoch Adejare Adeboye's lesson presents sanctification as the believer's consecration to God and continuing transformation into Christlikeness. Paul's words to the Corinthians declare that those once bound by sin have been washed, sanctified and justified in the name of Jesus and by the Spirit. Salvation therefore means leaving the old life behind; church attendance without changed conduct falls short of the new identity in Christ. The Word exposes what is right and trains believers to obey, while the Holy Spirit gives power to overcome sinful habits and cultivate godly character. Sanctification calls for daily surrender: examine thoughts, speech, attitudes and choices, reject compromise, and correct what displeases God. Its fruit is visible in love, patience, kindness, faithfulness and self-control.

Key points

- The believer is set apart and continually conformed to Christ.
- Scripture and the Holy Spirit equip a life of holiness.
- Daily surrender bears visible fruit and resists compromise.

MESSAGE

Deeper Life Bible Church

The Miracle of Christ for You
Preacher: Pastor William F. Kumuyi (identified in the source as DCLM Minister)
Scripture: 1 Samuel 30:6–8; Hebrews 8:6

...achieving heaven's goal

The supplied DCLM notes give "The Miracle of Christ for You" as the sermon title and cite David's strengthening of himself in the Lord (1 Samuel 30:6–8) alongside Christ's superior covenant (Hebrews 8:6). Read together, these passages direct the believer to seek strength and help in God when circumstances press hard, trusting Christ as the mediator of a better covenant. The notes place this hope within Deeper Life's emphases on biblical teaching, holiness, prayer, discipleship and practical obedience. Faith is not an escape from responsibility: Scripture should shape conduct, relationships and decisions, while prayer deepens dependence on Christ. The believer is called to reject sin, grow in discipline and godly character, and share the Gospel. Christ's help should therefore produce steadfastness, holy living and service, not complacency.

Key points

- Strengthen your heart in God and trust Christ's better covenant.
- Apply Scripture through prayer, holiness and disciplined Christian living.
- Let spiritual help lead to steadfast service and witness.

MESSAGE

Mountain of Fire and Miracles Ministries

JESUS: THE MASTER OVER EVERY STORM

Preacher: Not identified in the source
Scripture: Luke 8:22–25; John 16:33

Luke 8:22–25 anchors this MFM message in the disciples' crossing: a storm arose while they were with Jesus, yet His presence and authority were greater than the waves. Trouble, therefore, does not prove that God has abandoned a believer or that the believer has missed His direction. Christ remains Master over circumstances beyond human control, and John 16:33 grounds courage in His victory over the world. The call is to refuse fear's rule, keep trusting when answers are not yet clear, and seek God before major decisions in life. Believers should examine their lives, correct what conflicts with Scripture, persevere in prayer and maintain praise even in adversity. Peace is found not in a trouble-free life, but in confidence that Jesus is present, sovereign and able to sustain His people.

Key points

- Christ's presence and authority remain greater than every storm.
- Resist fear; pray, seek direction and persevere in faith.
- Let trials deepen trust, self-examination and praise.

MESSAGE

Christ Embassy / LoveWorld

THE MONTH OF GROWTH
Preacher: Pastor Chris Oyakhilome
Scripture: 1 Peter 2:2; 2 Peter 3:18; Colossians 2:6–7; Ephesians 4:13

During the Global Prayer and Fasting programme, Christ Embassy's September theme, "The Month of Growth," calls believers to become established in the Word and mature in Christ. Scripture is nourishment and foundation: Christians are to learn its principles, let them govern thought and conduct, and grow rooted in faith. Prayer and fasting express focused fellowship with God, while the Holy Spirit guides spiritual understanding and daily decisions. Growth must be more than accumulated knowledge or a past encounter; it should appear in Christlike character—love, patience, humility, forgiveness, integrity and self-control. As faith deepens, service should also expand: believers are to use their gifts for God's work, bless others and share the Gospel. The message therefore presents spiritual maturity as a continuing journey of devotion, understanding and fruitful witness.

Key points

- Grow through the Word, prayer, fasting and the Spirit's guidance.
- Measure maturity by Christlike character and faithful service.
- Keep advancing in faith and share the Gospel.

MESSAGE

Dunamis International Gospel Centre

Testimonies and Thanksgiving
Preacher: Dr. Pastor Paul Enenche
Scripture: Psalm 100:1–5; Psalm 107:1–2; Luke 17:11–19

Dunamis' Testimonies and Thanksgiving Service gathers worshippers to remember God's goodness and give Him glory. Psalm 100 summons the people to joyful worship, while Psalm 107 urges the redeemed to tell how the Lord has delivered them; Luke 17 recalls the one healed leper who returned to thank Jesus. Recalling former mercies keeps present difficulties from becoming the whole story and strengthens hope for what remains unresolved. Testimonies also serve the congregation, encouraging those who are still waiting and pointing attention away from human achievement toward God's faithfulness. Thanksgiving is not reserved for a special service or a season of ease; it is a daily posture that can coexist with honest prayer for needs. Believers are called to live gratefully and use every blessing for God's glory.

Key points

- Remember God's works and return thanks with joyful worship.
- Share testimonies to glorify God and strengthen others' faith.
- Practise gratitude in every season while continuing to pray.

MESSAGE

Salvation Ministries

The power of persistent prayer
Preacher: Pastor David Ibiyeomie
Scripture: Psalm 95:1–7; 2 Timothy 3:16–17; Psalm 18:1–8

At Salvation Ministries' Special Impartation Service, "The power of persistent prayer" calls believers to keep seeking God with faith, worship and perseverance. Psalm 95 joins prayer to reverent praise, recognising the Lord as Rock, Maker and Shepherd; Psalm 18 portrays Him as refuge and deliverer when distress overwhelms. Persistence is not an attempt to pressure God, but a steady dependence that brings needs, family, community and Gospel work before Him while trusting His wisdom and timing. Second Timothy 3:16–17 places Scripture at the centre of this life: God's Word teaches, corrects and equips the believer for faithful action. As worshippers receive instruction and encouragement, they are to seek divine direction, remain committed to God's purpose and become a blessing to others. A life of prayer is sustained by faithfulness and gratitude.

Key points

- Persist in prayer with worshipful confidence in God's care.
- Let Scripture teach, correct and equip you for good works.
- Seek direction, live faithfully and serve God's purpose.

MESSAGE

The Apostolic Church Nigeria

Worship and praise
Preacher: Not identified in the source
Scripture: Psalm 107:1–2; Luke 18:1–8

The Apostolic Church service centres on worship and praise, with Psalm 107:1–2 calling the redeemed to testify to God's enduring goodness and Luke 18:1–8 urging persistence in prayer. Praise remembers the Lord's faithfulness; prayer expresses continuing dependence, especially when justice or deliverance seems delayed. The Christian is encouraged to trust God in difficulty, hold fast to His promises and remain obedient to Scripture. Worship must shape the whole life: believers are called to holiness, righteous conduct and gratitude, allowing the Holy Spirit to guide their growth. Fellowship supplies mutual encouragement and prayerful support, while evangelism carries the Gospel beyond the congregation. The service's invitation is thus not merely to sing, but to live in faithful dependence on God and to make His goodness known.

Key points

- Praise God's enduring goodness and persevere in prayer.
- Follow Scripture and the Spirit in holy, thankful living.
- Grow through fellowship and share the Gospel.

MESSAGE

Daystar Christian Centre

Taking Responsibility
Preacher: Pastor Sam Adeyemi and Pastor Nike Adeyemi
Scripture: Romans 14:12; Galatians 6:4–5; Psalm 15:1–2

Daystar's Nigeria Independence Service links Christian faith with responsible citizenship. Romans 14:12 reminds each person that all will give an account to God; Galatians 6:4–5 calls people to examine their own conduct and carry their responsibilities; Psalm 15 commends integrity. Nation-building therefore begins with personal accountability rather than blame. Believers are urged to practise honesty at home and work, obey legitimate laws, serve their communities and use their abilities for the common good. Daystar's mandate to raise role models gives this call a public dimension: Christian character should be visible in compassion, respect, responsible leadership and service to people in need. In a diverse nation, believers can promote peaceful coexistence and resist division. Faithful citizens honour God by contributing to a society where others can live with dignity and hope.

Key points

- Accept personal accountability before God and society.
- Practise integrity, service and respect in daily life.
- Pray for Nigeria and contribute to peace, unity and wellbeing.

MESSAGE

Catholic Church

OBEDIENCE, REPENTANCE AND DOING THE WILL OF GOD

Scripture: Ezekiel 18:25–28; Psalm 25:4–9; Philippians 2:1–11; Matthew 21:28–32

On the Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A, the readings insist that God's call must be answered in action. In Matthew's parable, one son first refuses but later obeys; the other promises but fails to go. The one who does the father's will is the obedient son, showing that repentance can redirect a life and that words alone do not constitute discipleship. Ezekiel likewise proclaims life for the sinner who turns from wrongdoing and practises what is right. Psalm 25 asks the Lord to teach His paths, moving knowledge toward faithful practice. Philippians presents Christ's humility and self-emptying obedience as the pattern for Christian conduct: reject pride, attend to others' needs and serve with compassion.

Key points

- Repentance turns the sinner toward the Father's will.
- Christ's humility teaches obedience, service and concern for others.
- Let actions, not promises alone, reveal faith.

MESSAGE

The Church of Nigeria (Anglican Communion)

Worship, the Word of God, Prayer, Holy Communion and Christian Fellowship
Preacher: The Most Revd Henry C. Ndukuba
Scripture: Luke 22:19–20; Matthew 26:26–28; 1 Corinthians 10:16–17

The Church of Nigeria's Sunday worship gathers the faithful around Scripture, prayer, praise and the Holy Communion. The cited texts recall Christ's institution of the Eucharist and Paul's teaching that the cup and bread are a participation in Christ's blood and body, making the sacrament central to remembrance, communion and the unity of the Church. Worship begins in thanksgiving and includes confession, inviting believers to acknowledge sin and seek grace for renewed life. The Word is read and preached as the guide to God's will; faith in Jesus should then take shape in holiness, love and practical service. Prayer expresses dependence on God and intercession for families, Church, communities and nation. Anglican mission also calls believers to evangelism and discipleship, sharing the Gospel through word and example. Fellowship sustains this vocation through mutual encouragement.

Key points

- Receive the Word and Holy Communion in faith and thanksgiving.
- Confess, pray and pursue holy, Christ-centred living.
- Practise love, fellowship, evangelism and responsible service.

MESSAGE

The Methodist Church Nigeria

DOING THE WILL OF GOD
Preacher: Rev. Oliver Ali Aba
Scripture: Matthew 21:23–32; Ezekiel 18:1–4, 25–32; Psalm 25:1–9; Philippians 2:1–13

The Methodist readings call Christians to do the Father's will through obedience, repentance and humble service. In Matthew 21, the son who first refuses but later goes to the vineyard fulfils his father's request; the son who promises yet does nothing exposes the emptiness of words without action. Ezekiel stresses personal responsibility and God's invitation to turn from wrongdoing, while Psalm 25 asks for guidance in the Lord's ways. Philippians 2 sets Christ's self-emptying humility before the Church: reject selfish ambition, consider others' interests and serve without seeking recognition. Genuine faith should transform decisions, relationships, work and conduct. Believers are therefore urged to seek God's wisdom, obey Scripture and put their abilities to useful service.

Key points

- Obey God in deeds and turn from sin through genuine repentance.
- Follow Christ's humility by serving and considering others.
- Let Scripture direct daily choices and useful service.

TESTIMONIES

Lions' Mouths Divinely Shut
Daniel's integrity stirred the jealousy of officials who manipulated King Darius into outlawing prayer to anyone but the king. Unmoved, Daniel continued praying toward Jerusalem and was thrown into a den of hungry lions. His step of faith and obedience was to keep his appointed hours with God, even when devotion carried a death sentence. At dawn, Daniel testified that God had sent His angel and shut the lions' mouths; not a wound was found upon him. We testify that the living God vindicates steadfast faith and turns calculated destruction into public praise. Trust Him without compromise; He remains sovereign over every accusation, ruler, and threatening den.

Bible Verses: Daniel 6:10, 21–23

The Miraculous Catch of Fish
After a fruitless night, Simon Peter and his partners washed empty nets, weary and disappointed. Jesus told Peter to launch into the deep and lower the nets once more. His step of faith and obedience was to set aside experience and discouragement, declaring, "Nevertheless at thy word." The catch was immense; the nets began to break, and both boats nearly sank. Peter fell before Jesus, awakened to His holiness, and received a new calling to gather people for God. We testify that God can turn failure into abundance and work into purpose. Trust His word again; your empty season is not beyond His transforming command.

Bible Verses: Luke 5:4–11

ABOUT THE PUBLICATION

Kingdom Testament Chronicle is the flagship publication of Covenant Leadership Ministry International (CLMI), a non-denominational ministry committed to reconciling people to God, unveiling His Kingdom purpose, nurturing spiritual maturity and equipping believers to lead by the timeless principles of Scripture.

This publication is not for sale and has no commercial or business purpose. It exists solely to circulate the undiluted Word of God as preached by anointed ministers across Nigeria, strengthen the Body of Christ and take the Gospel of salvation to those who are yet to receive Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour.

More than a magazine, Kingdom Testament Chronicle is a vessel of inspiration, transformation and Kingdom advancement. It deepens understanding of God's Word, illuminates His divine agenda for this generation and demonstrates how biblical truths apply to leadership, service, family, ministry, enterprise and everyday life.

Every edition presents spiritually enriching teachings, inspiring testimonies, leadership perspectives, faith-building articles, ministry reports and practical resources that challenge believers to grow in grace and fulfil their divine callings. It seeks to raise Kingdom-minded leaders whose character reflects Christ and whose influence advances God's purposes.

As an extension of CLMI's vision, the Chronicle encourages believers to remain devoted to their local churches, recognising that the strength of Christ's Body is sustained through faithful discipleship, sacrificial service and unwavering commitment to God's Kingdom.

Whether you are a pastor, church worker, professional, student, entrepreneur, new convert or believer seeking deeper fellowship with God, Kingdom Testament Chronicle is your companion for spiritual growth, purposeful leadership and eternal impact.

Welcome to a publication where faith inspires obedience, leadership reflects Christ and every page points the reader towards salvation, service and eternity.

Growing in Christ. Leading with Purpose. Advancing God's Kingdom.

For more information:
Email: info@clmi.org.ng
Telephone: 07073092948, 07058924014

KINGDOM TESTAMENT
Chronicle

CLMI

COVENANT LEADERSHIP MINISTRY INTERNATIONAL

RAISING KINGDOM LEADERS

REACHING NATIONS

CHANGING LIVES